When submitting a revised manuscript to Hepatology Reserach, all authors are required to disclose any financial relationship (within the past 12 months) with a biotechnology manufacturer, a pharmaceutical company, or other commercial entity that has an interest in the subject matter or materials discussed in the manuscript. The matters requiring disclosure are outlined in the JSIM Conflict of Interest Policy (IV. Matters Requiring Disclosure).

When a manuscript has been accepted for publication, all of the disclosures will appear in the article as a "Conflict of Interest Statement" in Hepatology Research as follows:

Conflict of Interest Statement

A (author name) serves as a consultant to Z (entity name); B's spouse is chairman of Y;
C received a research grant from X; D received lecture fees from V; E holds a patent on U; F has been reimbursed by T for attending several conferences; G received honoraria for writing promotional material for S; H has no conflict of interest.

If you, your spouse, or other immediate family member, has any of the listed relationships with a commercial entity that has an interest in the subject matter in your manuscript, please refer it to the JSIM's definition for potential conflict of interest which must be disclosed. And then, check the appropriate "Yes" box below and provide details. If the listed relationship does not apply to you or your family member, check the appropriate "No" box.
